

Adam Wolfhart

Date of Birth: October 4, 1989

Place of Birth: Czech Republic

Current Residence: Denmark

Previous Residence: Belgium

Professional Summary

Blockchain Forensic Analyst and Financial Security Specialist with over 10 years of experience investigating cryptocurrency fraud, tracing illicit transactions, and supporting international law enforcement. Skilled in blockchain analytics, financial risk management, and AML/CFT compliance. Known for precise analytical methods and successful recovery of stolen digital assets.

Key Skills

- Blockchain Forensics & Transaction Tracking
- AML/CFT Compliance
- Financial Risk Assessment
- Fraud Detection
- Cybersecurity in Digital Finance

Work Experience

Blockchain Forensic Analyst & Financial Security Specialist | Solinex

2019 – Present | Copenhagen, Denmark

- Led blockchain investigations into fraud and money laundering cases.
- Developed analytical tools to monitor crypto transactions and identify risks.
- Worked with law enforcement and financial institutions on compliance and recovery operations.

Blockchain Analytics & Financial Crime Prevention Specialist – Elliptic

2016 – 2019 | Copenhagen, Denmark

- Implemented blockchain monitoring systems for AML/CFT compliance.
- Advised banks and fintech companies on blockchain-based security solutions.
- Supported regulators in crypto-related investigations.

Financial Risk & Blockchain Consultant – PwC

2014 – 2016 | Brussels, Belgium

- Guided corporations on blockchain adoption and risk mitigation.
- Strengthened data security frameworks against financial cyber threats.

Education

M.S. in Blockchain Forensics and Digital Security
Oxford University, United Kingdom | 2016

B.S. in Finance and Blockchain Technologies
Charles University, Czech Republic | 2013

Professional Highlights

- Participated in over 300 successful crypto investigations, recovering millions in digital assets.
- Speaker at international cybersecurity and blockchain conferences across Europe.